Number 2

FREE JOURNALS!!

The Alabama Archaeological Society is giving away back issues of the Journal of Alabama Archaeology. Any four numbers (two year's worth) of your choice from the current publication list included with this Stones and Bones can be yours.

How can you get 'em?

There are two easy ways.

First, if you are are not a member of the Alabama Archaeological Society, all you have to do is join. The AAS is giving free Journals to all new members. If you are already a member, give a gift membership to a new member. You have a lot of friends who should be members, friends you collect with or attend local chapter meetings with, friends you talk with about archaeology.

And what about your local library, local historical society, or your local school? You could sponsor a tax-deductible membership for a group like this that would really appreciate it in these times of proration. Support your schools, support Alabama archaeology, support the AAS, and add to your own library -- all at the same time.

This is a cheap way to build your library. For a $9 membership you can get issues of the Journal that would cost anywhere from $14 to $24.

If you want eight back numbers, give two memberships. Want twelve? --Give three. There's no limit. We have lots of back issues.

What a deal!

ARCHIVES NEED ARROW POINTS

We are still searching for a few copies of Arrow Points to complete our collection for the AAS Archives. Arrow Points was published from 1920 to 1937 by the Alabama Anthropological Society, based in Montgomery and led by Peter A. Brannon, Director of the Alabama Department of Archives and History. We need the following:

Volume 1 #1, 3-6 - 1920
Volume 2 #1-6 - ?
Volume 3 #1-4 - 1921
Volume 22 #3-6 - 1937

We now have about 90 percent plus for a total collection. We started the collection years ago by a generous contribution from Gregory Perino. The Mobile Public Library contributed a substantial number, and Mc Brooms also contributed. Recently Jim Lee augmented our collection, and we hope someone out there will contribute the remaining issues to make our collection complete.

We have the following duplicates that we are willing to trade in order to obtain those we need:

Volume 4 #1-6 - 1922
Volume 5, #1, 4, 5, 6 - 1922
Volume 6, #1, 2, 6 - 1923
Volume 7, #1-5 - 1923
Volume 8, #1-6 - 1924
Volume 9, #1, 2, 4, 6 - 1924
Volume 10, #1-6 - 1925
Volume 13, #2-6 - 1929
Volume 14, #1, 2, 5 - 1929
Volume 15, #3, 4, 6 - 1930
Volume 16, #2, 3 - 1930
Volume 18, #1, 2, 4-6 - 1931
Volume 19, #1-6 - 1931, 32, 33
Volume 20, #1, 2, 5, 6 - 1934
Volume 21, #1, 2 - 1936

CHAPTER NEWS

Cullman Chapter

Our December meeting saw 15 of us enjoying a wonderful meal at Eva. The program for January was given by Mr. Charles Moore of Florence. His program was on Midwest Archaeology. Charles brought his artifacts of this area.

Cullman Chapter officers for 1992 are as follows:

President - Van King
Vice President - Ronald Morrow
Secretary/Treasurer - Eulis King
Program Chairmen - Ronald Morrow, Howard King

East Alabama Chapter

Our February program was presented by Dr. Gary Mullen, Professor of Entomology, Auburn University, who is also President of this chapter. Dr. Mullen showed slides and lectured on "The Sinagua: Ancient Pueblo Culture of the American Southwest." The Sinagua Indians lived in the area between the San Francisco Peaks and the Little Colorado River in northern Arizona, where they flourished for more than 200 years following the eruption of Sunset Crater about 800 A.D. Their pueblo culture was closely tied to the volcanic soils which supported crops of maize, beans and squash. The slide presentation focused on the ruins at Wupatki, Nalakihi, and the Citadel. Twenty-five people attended this meeting.

Our next meeting will be Wednesday, March 11, at 7 p.m., in the Alabama Power Company auditorium; 230 North Gay Street; Auburn; at which time Ned J. Jenkins - Park Manager and Archaeologist, Fort Toulouse/Fort Jackson State Park - will present a program on this park and the Living History program which is enacted there. Visitors are welcome.

East Alabama Chapter officers for 1992 are:

President - Dr. Gary Mullen
Vice President - Dr. John Cottier
Secretary/Treasurer - Caroline R. Dean

Huntsville Chapter

Mr. Joe Hines was speaker at the January 28 meeting. Mr. Hines is Curator of the Anniston Museum of Natural History.

He presented a most interesting program, citing the contributions of an artist/illustrator to archaeology. Illustrating his talk were slides of Inca sites in Peru and of scale models for projects he has worked on.

February's speaker is scheduled to be Mr. Evan Peacock of Pan American Consultants, a private archaeological contracting firm based in Tuscaloosa. Mr. Peacock will speak about recent field work that he directed at an aboriginal Mississippian-period site on the Cumberland River in Nashville, Tennessee.

Elections were held at the January chapter meeting for officers for 1992. Elected were:

President - Van King
First Vice President - H. Blaine Ensor
Second Vice President - Bobby Gillespie
Secretary/Treasurer - Dawn Gillespie
Librarian - Georgia Dunn

The Huntsville Chapter meets the fourth Tuesday of each month in the Auditorium of the Public Library on St. Clair Avenue. The public is welcome.

WATCH FOR NEW COLUMN

The March 1992 issue of STONES & BONES will feature a new column known as "AAS Commentary." The purpose of the column is to promote communication among the AAS Membership on a wide range of archaeological issues. Society members are encouraged to make short submissions expressing their viewpoints or opinions on matters they deem important to archaeology and historic preservation in the state. So please send us your comments, and we will see that they are published as soon as possible.
